

Overview

Having continued to build on your reading, listening, speaking, writing and grammar expertise at GCSE level, A-level Spanish will enable you to master these skills and communicate with people across the world. Learning Spanish at A-level not only means you will be able to converse more fluently in Spanish but also gives you deep knowledge and understanding of the history and culture of a wide range of Spanish-speaking countries; from Spain to South and Central America, Africa and beyond! Building on the topics studied at KS4, A-level Spanish will give you the opportunity to explore a wide range of themes and develop skills from across the A-level spectrum: sociology, media, history, politics, literature, business and more.

AIMS

Spanish A Level aims to encourage students:

- To develop the ability to comprehend Spanish in a wide range of contexts
- To enable the student to communicate confidently and clearly in Spanish for a variety of purposes
- To form a sound base of skills, language and attitudes required for further study, work and leisure
- To develop useful knowledge of, and insights into, past and contemporary Spanish-speaking culture
- To encourage positive attitudes to, and a lasting appreciation of, language learning
- To further intellectual and personal development by promoting learning and social skills
- To gain valuable skills for foreign travel, further education and employment

ASSESSMENT

Students are assessed in listening, reading and writing (as one paper), another writing paper (film/literature essay) and speaking (which includes an individual research project) at the end of Year 13.

Post 18 opportunities

As well as allowing candidates to develop their language skills, the course will foster an awareness of Spanish culture and history. In addition to providing a secure foundation for study in higher education, the course equips candidates with a range of skills for careers in business, education and the arts.

Destinations of students in recent years: UCL – French and Spanish

Expenses

Students will be expected to purchase their own textbook and grammar book. It is also expected that they will purchase a good quality Spanish to English dictionary.
