ON THE ROAD TO POST-16 STUDY

Read/Research	Watch/Listen	Revisit	Other Tasks
There is a very good series of books by contemporary philosopher Peter Vardy, called 'The Puzzle of…' including; God, Ethics and Christianity. These books match the 3 papers of the Religious Studies course. Visit: www.reonline.org.uk to read short articles on Christianity, Ethics and Philosophy, such as on Free Will, Gender equality and how accurate the Bible is. Visit: www.bbc.co.uk/religion/religions/ to find out more about Christianity, specifically different denominations and the differences between them.	The YouTube channel '3 Minute Theology' offers accessible, short video clips about Christianity. Netflix series 'The Good Place' is full of references to Ethics, not to mention lots of fun. Channel 4 series 'The 100' is a story-line seeped in Ethical ideas and moral questions. The YouTube channel 'Cosmic Skeptic' offers some great videos on Philosophy and Ethics, including interviews with famous atheist Richard Dawkins. Netflix documentary 'The story of God with Morgan Freeman' covers both religious, philosophical and ethical issues relating to believing in God.	Visit: www.request.org.uk to read short blog posts and watch a number of videos about Christianity, which is the core religion studied at A-level. Visit: www.truetube.co.uk to find short video clips on Ethical issues from abortion to the environment. YouTube channel 'Chuck Knows Church' goes through Christian worship and ceremonies in an accessible way.	Visit: www.philosophyninja.co.uk which is a website run by a Philosophy teacher and includes blogs, videos and revision tips.
