

Potential careers in PE

Studying sport can lead a wide range of careers, including:

- Physiotherapy
- Coaching
- Personal training
- Sports journalism
- Officiating
- Leisure management
- PE teaching
- Sports marketing and PR
- .... And many more

Anatomy and Physiology

Fitness training and programming

Application of fitness testing

Professional development in the sports industry

edexcel
LV3 BTEC Sport

Sport and the media
Performance and leadership
Contemporary issues in sport

Cambridge NATIONALS

Lv2 sport

edexcel
GCSE yr10

2-year course

KS4 Core PE

- Major focus on enjoyment through a choice of different sports
- Development the importance for mental and social wellbeing
- Developing good sporting habits to encourage engagement in sport in adult life

YEAR 9
All skills developed across
A wide range of Sports

- Introduction of new sports e.g. Trampoline, Fitness suite
- Implementation of all major rules for most sports
- Development of set pieces to influence a game

YEAR 8
All skills developed across
A wide range of Sports

- Develop ability to evaluate ones own performance
- Development of when to implement core skills within a game
- Development of technical terminology related to various sports

YEAR 7
All skills developed across
A wide range of Sports

- Working with others in small teams
- Introduction to self and peer assessment
- Introduction to regular House Matches