

During the World Book Day week the librarian will offer Highdown's students the opportunity to partake in a Design a Book Token competition after school on 4-5 March. If your child would like to come to both or one of these opportunities please complete and return the reply slip below to Rebecca Nilsson in the library, giving your child permission to attend after school.

Deadline: Preferably on Tuesday 25 March, but on the day is possible too.

Be aware: There is only a limited amount of seats per class room – first come first served basis.
