

Reading Families Forum 2 June 2020

If you are on a low income and need help with costs of supporting your child at home during the lockdown, take a look at the following. The link to apply is on this page. Don't be put off by the reports of delays, get your application in!

<https://schoolsweek.co.uk/coronavirus-10m-emergency-home-learning-fund-set-up-for-families-with-send-pupils/>

There is an online workshop on your benefit rights run by Autism Berkshire on 15th June for those with children 0 – 15 years and on 29th June for 16+

<https://www.autismberkshire.org.uk/2020/05/26/online-benefits-advice-workshops/>

Suitable for children with a range of special needs, Ambitious about Autism have made a short story book to help children cope with the current pandemic. You can listen to it being read, watch the video, or download it here.

<https://www.ambitiousaboutautism.org.uk/information-about-autism/coronavirus-and-autism/health-and-wellbeing/the-world-has-turned-upside-down>

Berkshire youth have gathered together a number of resources for parent carers as we support our children during this pandemic and for young people themselves.

<https://www.berkshireyouth.co.uk/parentscarers>

<https://www.berkshireyouth.co.uk/young-people>

Our first ever coffee morning on Zoom is this Thursday at 11:30. Email Fran

Morgan fran.morgan.rrf@gmail.com to book on.

Wishing you all the best this week and hoping to see as many of you as possible on Thursday via Zoom.

Reading Families Forum

Registered Charity No. 1166585

A voice for families of children and young people with special educational needs and/or disabilities